5. DELEGATION

The following officials or persons officially designated to act for the incumbents are delegated authority to administer oath of office and appointment affidavits. This authority may not be redelegated.

- Administrator

- Individuals with delegated employment authority in DIRECTIVE 400.4
- Area Director
- Location Leader/Research Leader
- Administrative Officer/Administrative Technician
- Area Personnel Assistant

6. REQUIREMENTS

The SF-61 must be executed before the employee enters on duty under an appointment.

All employees must execute an SF-61 except those who are:

- Appointed without compensation under Schedule A, Section 213.3102(k) (collaborator).
- Converted to a new appointment or otherwise have a change in status, as long as service is continuous in the same agency.
- Reassigned when the employing office or agency changes as a result of a transfer of function ("Realignment" or "Mass Transfer" action).
- Restored to their former position as the result of an appeal and decision that their removal was unwarranted or unjustified.
- Covered under a waiver or modification authorized by the Director of Personnel, USDA.

7. PROCEDURE FOR APPOINTMENT

Administering Official

- Impress upon the appointee the importance of truth and completeness on SF-61 and I-9.

New Appointee

- Complete and sign Part C as appropriate on to USDA SF-61.

Administering Official

- Have new Federal appointees repeat statements under Parts A, B, and C of the SF-61.
- Sign, date, and enter official title in Part C of the SF-61.

NOTE: Exact title must be used as shown under DELEGATIONS in this DIRECTIVE. Persons designated to act for incumbent of such positions must use "Acting" before the title.

- Obtain and review identification documents required by I-9, and certify with signature, official title, and date.
- Guard against impersonation and determine beyond a reasonable doubt that the appointee is the eligible qualified by examination and whose appointment has been authorized.
- Forward all forms to PD. (Exhibit 1 provides a checklist of both required and optional forms needed for appointment.) This form is filled out and signed by the person conducting the orientation.

PD

- Review all forms to ensure that the appointment or conversion is legal and proper.

NOTE: Two additional forms, OF-333 Procurement Integrity Certification for Procurement Officials and AD-392 Statement of Financial Interest and Outside Employment may be required for certain employees within 30 days of appointment.

8. OBJECTIVES OF NEW EMPLOYEE ORIENTATION

To introduce each new employee, whether permanent or temporary to the organizational structure, mission, and activities of ARS, and especially the Location at which they will be employed.

To familiarize each new employee with the type of appointment they hold and the benefits related to it.

To familiarize the new employee with basic Federal, USDA, and ARS policies and administrative procedures that affect them.

To ensure that all initial appointment processing forms are distributed to each incoming employee, with appropriate instructions for their completion.

To provide each new employee with an accessible, comprehensive, and up-to-date package of orientation materials (see Exhibit 2) and sources for more specific information.

To assist the new employee package in adapting to his/her work assignments, responsibilities, and work environment.

9. RESPONSIBILITIES

PD-NSB is responsible for:

- Formulating and recommending orientation policy and procedures for new employees.
- Ascertaining needs for new employee orientation and materials as a part of the Training Needs Assessment process.
- Periodically updating, revising, and distributing to Areas and Locations the New Employee Handbook.
- Reviewing and monitoring results annually of new employee orientation evaluations for recommended changes and modifications of this DIRECTIVE.
- Developing and maintaining systems for updating and distributing information on new employee orientation to responsible individuals.

Area Personnel Assistant, Location Administrative Officers/Administrative

Technicians or Clerks, PD-POB staff who conduct orientation are responsible for:

- Assuring that new employees understand, complete and return all initial appointment processing forms.
- Developing and conducting local new employee orientation (refer to LAO Personnel Desk Reference Manual, the stated "Objectives of New Employee Orientation" as outlined in this DIRECTIVE, and Exhibit 3, which provides a sample outline of an orientation program).
- Preparing and distributing new employee orientation resource folders to new employees. (Exhibit 2 provides a listing of required and suggested materials for the resource folders).
- Discussing the Ethics Reform Act and the Commercial Vehicle Safety Act.
- Monitoring the effectiveness of the new employee orientation by having new employees complete the post-orientation evaluation (Exhibit 4 - ARS-100).
- Using the results of the post-orientation evaluations to modify and revise their local new employee orientation program as needed.
- Obtaining and monitoring orientation materials and supplies as needed.

Supervisors/Managers are responsible for:

- Assuring that all new employees receive an orientation to USDA/ARS/ Area/Location within the first month of employment, and an orientation to work/job procedures on the first day of employment.
- Assuring that new employees are familiar with what is expected of them in their positions by having them participate in reviewing their official position description and establishing written performance standards.
- Ensuring that employees and cooperators currently authorized to operate commercial vehicles have appropriate state license.
- Assuring that all new employees receive copies of their official position descriptions and performance standards.

- Developing with the new employee an IDP within the first 3 months of employment. The IDP should assess the knowledge, skills, and abilities required of the new employee to successfully perform the required duties. Items for consideration include self study courses, readings, attendance at professional seminars or conferences, formal training at universities or colleges, developmental activities, and on-the-job training.
- Introducing new employees to co-workers and providing tour of immediate work areas (Exhibit 5 provides suggestions for immediate work site tours).
- Providing new employee with a post-orientation follow-up to check on progress and to answer any questions or concerns.
